

Become a tree spotter!

As you walk around the Parks of Chelmsford, see if you can spot any of these magnificent trees.
Trees are really important for lots of wildlife including birds, bats, insects, small mammals and reptiles!
Do you know which park each tree is in? Can you identify what type of tree each one is? Answers on page 3

Become a Tree Spotter!

How many answers did you get right?

- 1. Copper Beech tree in Admirals Park
- 2. Oak tree in Hylands Park
- 3. Weeping Willow at the end of Fifth Avenue
- 4. Judas-tree in Tower Gardens
- 5. Cedar Lebanese in Boleyn Gardens
- 6. Redwood tree in Hylands Park